Dear Thomas,

The American Red Cross works to improve the lives of vulnerable people around the world. We speed relief to disaster survivors and help communities prepare for the next emergency. We lead programs to prevent deadly diseases such as measles, malaria and HIV/AIDS. We reconnect families separated by crisis or conflict, and promote understanding of the humanitarian principles that guide our work.

Recently, the American Red Cross relied on the International Response Fund to respond immediately to the devastating earthquakes both in Chile and in Haiti. The Fund makes it possible to meet the urgent needs of survivors in the first days and hours after a disaster strikes or humanitarian crises begins. Your compassionate gift makes our critical work possible.

With your gift, the American Red Cross will deliver help and hope to people throughout the world. To learn more about your gift at work, please visit www.redcross.org or call 1-800-797-8022. Thank you again for your generous support of our work.

Sincerely,

The American Red Cross
